

Romance and Smoochies!

Need a good love story to get you through the week? Something with lots of drama and romance? Then look no further!

The Truth About Forever (Sarah Dessen)

Macy's father has recently died. She hides her loss behind a mask of perfection until she meets the chaotic crew that is Wish Catering, who teach her things don't have to be perfect to be beautiful. She meets Wes, and through a continuous game of Truth with him, Macy learns that broken hearts - even hers - can be patched up again.

The Esspressologist (Kristina Springer)

Seventeen-year-old barista Jane Turner has this theory that you can tell a lot about a person by their regular coffee drink. She scribbles it all down in a notebook and calls it Espressoology - then starts matchmaking based on people's favourite drinks.

Cupid: A Tale of Love & Desire (Julius Lester)

When the god of love falls in love himself, things are bound to get interesting. And when he crosses his mama, Venus, in the process... Well, things could get downright messy.

If You Come Softly (Jacqueline Woodson)

After meeting at a private school in New York, fifteen-year-old Jeremiah, who is black and whose parents are separated, and Ellie, who is white and whose mother has twice abandoned her, fall in love and then try to cope with people's reactions.

Audrey, Wait! (Robin Benway)

While trying to score a date with her cute co-worker, sixteen-year-old Audrey gains unwanted fame and celebrity status when her ex-boyfriend, a rock musician, records a breakup song about her that soars to the top of the Billboard charts.

The Year of Secret Assignments (Jaclyn Moriarty)

Three female students from Ashbury High write to three male students from rival Brookfield High as part of a pen pal program, leading to romance, humiliation, revenge plots, and war between the schools.

Impossible (Nancy Werlin)

Lucy Scarborough is seventeen when she discovers that the women of her family have been cursed through the generations, forced to attempt three seemingly impossible tasks or to fall into madness upon their child's birth. Lucy is the first girl who won't be alone as she tackles the list - she has Zach, whose strength amazes her more each day.

Shiver (Maggie Stiefvater)

In the first of the series, Grace and Sam, who met when she was attacked and bitten by werewolves six years ago, meet again when Sam is shot and saved by Grace.

Gingerbread (Rachel Cohn)

After being expelled from a fancy boarding school, Cyd Charisse's problems with her mother escalate after Cyd falls in love with a sensitive surfer and is subsequently sent from San Francisco to New York City to spend time with her biological father.

Angus, Thongs and Full-Frontal Snogging

(Louise Rennison)

Presents the humorous journal of a year in the life of a fourteen-year-old British girl who tries to reduce the size of her nose, stop her mad cat from terrorizing the neighborhood animals, and win the love of handsome hunk Robbie. Hilariosity ensues.

Sloppy Firsts (Megan McCafferty)

When her best friend, Hope Weaver, moves away from Pineville, New Jersey, hyper-observant sixteen-year-old Jessica Darling is devastated. How is she supposed to deal with the boy- and shopping-crazy girls at school, her dad's obsession with her track meets, her mother salivating over big sister Bethany's lavish wedding, and her nonexistent love life?

The Bermudez Triangle (Maureen Johnson)

When Nina learns the shocking truth that her best friends Mel and Avery have fallen in love with each other, their friendship is rocked by what feels like the ultimate challenge. But it's only the beginning of a painful, funny, and gripping journey as three girls discover who they are and what they really want.

What My Mother Doesn't Know (Sonya Sones)

Sophie is dating smoky, sexy Dylan, covertly chatting online with "cybersoulmate" Chaz, and secretly nursing a crush on sweet, geeky Murphy.
